Lobbying & Advocacy Rules for Nonprofits

Have you ever wondered what the difference is between advocacy and lobbying? Are you curious to know how and if your 501(c)3 agency can get involved in election-related activities? Would you like to know how to accurately keep track of advocacy-related activities? Are you interested in learning how a 501(c)3 and 501(c)4 can work together on an advocacy campaign?

If you answered yes to any of these, join us for this full day workshop on the lobbying and advocacy rules for 501(c)3 nonprofit agencies, staff, boards and clients. Participants will learn the basics of worry-free advocacy including federal lobbying rules, Florida lobbying rules, tax law on election related activity and the different affiliations and associations that can help aid your agency's advocacy efforts.

Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity to learn from a national leader about your agency's right to advocate for your cause!

Presented by Alliance for Justice

a national association of environmental, civil rights, mental health, women's, children's, and consumer advocacy organizations.
