Recognizing the commitment to fund raising leadership

Nonprofit Leadership Center of Tampa Bay is proud to bring you the nationally renowned Certificate in Fund Raising Management from The Center on Philanthropy at Indiana University. This certificate recognizes and rewards a commitment to fund raising leadership through completion of four key courses in the Tampa Bay area and presented by the Fund Raising School:

COURSE	DATES	COST
Principles & Techniques	April 14 through April 18	$750.00
Developing Major Gifts	September 3 through September 5	$625.00
Planned Giving	November 3 through November 5	$675.00
Interpersonal Communication	November 6 through November 7	$575.00

Principles & Techniques: Recognized internationally, Principles & Techniques of Fund Raising gives you the foundation and inspiration to lead your organization to its financial goals. It provides you with the framework for operating a successful total development program. It is an intensive five-day, A-through-Z training program that is the basis for the rest of the course.

Developing Major Gifts: The eight steps to raising major gifts.

Planned Giving: Position your organization to be part of the multi-billion dollar wealth transfer.

Interpersonal Communication: Learn how you, other staff members, and donors think and act.
