

The Friends of the Library of Tampa-Hillsborough County and Hillsborough County Economic Development Department

invite you to

"Seminario sobre la recaudación de fondos"

A full-day, free Spanish language grant-seeker training seminar from The Foundation Center of New York

Wednesday, September 26, 2007

9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

John F. Germany Public Library

900 N. Ashley Drive in downtown Tampa, Florida

Presented by Training Coordinator Ms. Luz Rodriguez, the Center's full-day program covers the basics of fundraising and proposal writing and provides networking opportunities for Spanish-speaking representatives of nonprofit organizations with the following sessions: Evaluating Your Readiness to Fundraise, Understanding the World of Grantmakers, Developing a Proposal, and Researching Funding Partners.

Space is limited.

Advance registration is required.

For further information or to RSVP, contact Anne Arthur at arthura@hillsboroughcounty.org.

Hills. Co. Grants
Collaborative logo